

Los Angeles Times

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — Sept. 2019 — Michael Collins, a Coldwell Banker Global Luxury Property Specialist affiliated with the Beverly Hills North office of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, has listed a historical Beverly Hills property for $8,450,000. Located at 626 N Foothill Rd. in Beverly Hills, Calif., the five-bedroom, six-bathroom, one-partial-bathroom and approximately 6,962-square-foot home was owned by Florence Falzone Courtright Lucas, the widow of Hernando Courtright who was the former owner and proprietor of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel. Florence Falzone Courtright Lucas later enjoyed 23 years of marriage in this home with the Honorable Malcolm Lucas, retired Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court until his death in 2016.

Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage

GLOBAL LUXURY™

CalRE 00963037

Michael@MichaelCollins.com
MichaelCollins.com
310-828-4200